

Direction no. 86

Migration Act 1958

Direction under section 499

Order of Consideration – Certain Skilled Migration Visas

I, David Coleman, Minister for Immigration, Citizenship, Migrant Services and Multicultural Affairs give this Direction under section 499 of the Migration Act 1958.

Dated: 8 / 11 2019

THE HON DAVID COLEMAN MP

Minister for Immigration, Citizenship, Migrant Services and Multicultural Affairs

Part 1 of Direction no. 86 – Preliminary

1. Name of direction

This Direction is Direction no. 86 Order of Consideration – Certain Skilled Migration visas.

It may be cited as Direction no. 86.

2. Commencement

This Direction commences on 16 November 2019.

3. Revocation

Direction no. 81, given under section 499 of the Act and dated 26 March 2019, is revoked with effect from the date this Direction commences.

4. Application

1. This Direction applies to all persons and bodies having powers under the Act, including the AAT, to consider and dispose of the applications for the visas specified in Schedule A and Schedule B and to review decisions pertaining to those applications.
2. This Direction also applies to decision-makers, including the AAT, who consider nomination applications in relation to visas specified in Schedule A and Schedule B.
3. Without intending to limit the scope of (1), this Direction applies to decision-makers performing functions or exercising powers:
 - a) under section 51 of the Act; and
 - b) under section 91 of the Act.
4. This Direction does not apply to:
 - a) applications that have been remitted by the AAT for reconsideration;
 - b) applications where the AAT has set aside a decision and substituted a new decision;
 - c) applications where it is readily apparent that the criteria for grant of the visa would not be satisfied;
 - d) applications by visa applicants claiming to be a member of the family unit of a person who holds a visa granted on the basis of satisfying the primary criteria in Schedule 2 to the Regulations and who did not make a combined application with that person;
 - e) applications for a Subclass 489 (Skilled - Regional (Provisional)) visa where the applicant seeks to satisfy the criteria in the Second Provisional Visa stream or claims to be a member of the family unit of such an applicant;
 - f) applications for a Subclass 189 (Skilled – Independent) visa where the applicant seeks to satisfy the criteria in the New Zealand stream.

5. Subject to (4) above, this Direction applies to nomination applications and visa applications made both before, on or after the commencement of this Direction.

5. Preamble

1. Australia's Skilled Migration Program is designed to select people who will make a positive contribution to the Australian economy and labour market, and assist Australian businesses to access workers with skills that cannot be met from the local labour market, including in emerging new technology and growth sectors. The Government also remains committed to assisting employers and communities in regional Australia through dedicated regional skilled visa programs.
2. In relation to the specified visas in Schedule A, this Direction directs persons and bodies to which it applies with respect to the performance of functions and exercise of powers (under section 51 or section 91 of the Act) to:
 - consider and dispose of visa applications in the appropriate order of consideration; and
 - to review decisions pertaining to those applications in the appropriate order of consideration.
3. Persons and bodies to whom this direction applies are to give due regard to the priority processing directions set out below in Part 2 of this Direction.
